LOUISVILLE JOURNAL.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 3 A. M.

The epidemic in New Orleans—Results for the week ending yesterday, the following presumable and resolution, offered by Capt. J.
 St. Neal, of the steamer Richmond, were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, There is great suffering from yellow fever among the people of New Orleans, a city identified with us by strong and binding ties of relationship and trade, it devolves upon this community to attend to them in sympathy and aid, therefore Resolved, That this Chamber appoint a committee of ten to solicit from the members and citizens generally contributions, all to be transmitted to the Howard Association, at New Orleans, for the relief of the sick.

In accordance with the foregoing, the following committee was appointed: Capt.
 J. S. Neal, Chairman; Richmond, A. O.
 Brantley, W. H. Hoffman, John P. Moore, W. H. Dulany, Geo. W. Wicks, J. J.
 Porter, Dent Whips, John B. McFerran, and James Traub.

We entertain no doubt whatever that the efforts of this committee will meet with ready and generous response from our people. They can be said to be ready to stand by their friends in suffering and death among their friends to spare them to noble deeds of charity. Louisville, we venture to say, will be second to no city in this benevolent, humane work. She is a little late in beginning, though. Boston and other far Northern cities, we notice, have been aiding the suffering people of New Orleans for a week or two past. But the subject is not fully before the citizens of Louisville.

It is not of our merchants to neglect the important, and the abundance of their offerings will succor the dying and ease the orisons of the weary and watchful living.

In quest of employment.—Within the past few days we have met a number of worthy and competent young men, who have been forced to quit their homes in the South and seek employment elsewhere. Many of those who have stopped in our city have been merchandising for themselves in Tennessee and other States "over the border," but the scarcity of work generally interests them as far as they can in these unemployed youths.

Their circumstances are such that, considered together with their intellectual and moral fitness and their experience, no employer having need of their services and being able to help them to a situation can repudiate their claims and consistently assert his own title to humanity of feeling.
 Do not others do so would be done.

Acting upon this humane principle, our merchants will bring down blessings upon themselves and confer upon the young strangers who have introduced to their notice a degree of happiness unknown save to the neglected wanderer from home. Befriend them.

Excursion to Niagara.—We have already apprised our readers of the fact that a convention of the railroad ticket agents in the United States will be held at Niagara Falls next week. The delegates from this city have conceived the happy idea of running an excursion sleeping car through the Jeffersonville depot to Niagara, for the pleasure and accommodation of themselves and their friends, including the hotel proprietors and members of the press. Capt. W. F.
 Harris, of sleeping-car and transfer no-tories, has clearly provided one of his most elegant and spacious cars for the journey, which will be made from Louisville to the Falls without change of train.

This excursion is the most inviting that could be devised. The reason could not be more propitious, and the route and destination, as travelers know, will afford enjoyment as rare as the fond enthusiast could wish. Happy, thrice happy, the party that goes.

Annual Masonic Reunion.—The first annual Masonic reunion in this city, to consist of a social gathering and grand banquet, will take place at the Masonic Temple during the session of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, which commences on the 21st of October. It will be gotten up under the auspices of Howe Lodge of Perfection, No. 2, A. M., assisted by the entire fraternity of Louisville.

The festival is to be a special honor of the officers and members of the Grand Lodge. Already the preparations are well advanced. The affair is in the hands of gentlemen of undoubted taste and energy and influence. They will succeed in making the reunion one of the most memorable events in the history of the mystic brotherhood in this State.

Monday is usually the dulllest day of the six with our business men. That yesterday was a plain exception to the rule bespeaks the advent of better days.
 The reaction through the Main Street and other principal parts of trade in the city were "flooded" with cases of merchandise, and almost every house was thronged with customers. We do not remember to have seen a busier Monday in Louisville.

Trains Delayed.—The through train from Nashville on Sunday was detained about four hours at Bowling Green, in consequence of damage to a section of trestle-work on the Memphis Branch road beyond the State line, which accident the Memphis train failed to connect regularly with the Nashville train at the Bowling Green Junction.

J. B. Akin, of Danville, who was tested by order of the Freedmen's Bureau for killing a negro boy, was yesterday turned over to the Federal authorities and there his own recognizance and he discharged from custody.

Remains of the debris of the Meade block Third Street, between Jefferson and Adams Streets, which were damaged by the explosion of the block on Sunday, are reported to be in the hands of the city.

Most of our judges and lawyers will be coming next week. They'll do it briefly, too. All of the courts except the criminal will be in session.

LOUISVILLE CITY COURT.

JOHN H. HOPKINS ON THE BENCH.

No more can furnish fitting song to his triumphal march.

Saturday night and Sunday never fail to furnish a prolific crop of crime in all cities. Ours even is not an exception. The docket of the Police Court was running over yesterday morning, but there were no very heinous cases. The usual crowd of loafers, who glory in human misery, were on hand, and on the rise to bear all that passed. No doubt many of them with their lower hands and officers of the court for no higher reason than that they could get closer to the bar, as it is all the Marshal can do to keep them behind the railing.

Mr. Glor, the engineer of the locomotive layette, under the cow-catcher of which the boy Daniel Gehrig was crushed to death, was examined and excused from all blame in the case.

Mr. N. H. Holmes laid out on the C.
 & O. track was said to be from the C.
 & O. R. Co., and also for $25 as a guarantee for his appearance to answer an indictment for petit larceny. James Bailey was found lying on his back on the "purity street," where looking up at the "purity street" not being a licensed in-situation, his astronomical observations were suddenly cut off by a cloud of blue ink, which he had thrown at the the Thomas, and paid $3 for his night's lodging. Anne Moore, a jaded dame in black, broad hat, and
 New Orleans for a week or two past. But

KENTUCKY CONFERENCE.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH.

(Specially Reported for the Louisville Journal.) LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 23, 1867.

On Saturday night was addressed by the Rev. Dr. Taylor and the Rev. T. D. Summers, D. D. The report showed that about twenty-five of the members of the church had been collected in the different churches for domestic and foreign missions. Over one thousand dollars additional were collected at the Conference anniversary meeting.

The Rev. J. W. Rood, by request, entertained the congregation with several most thrilling missionary songs. Dr. Taylor repeated the Lord's Prayer in Latin.
 The Pastor was five years a missionary in China.

SABBATH EXERCISES.
 The pulpits of all the Protestant Churches were filled by the ministers of the Conference, except the Episcopalians, which was not tendered. A Conference was held at Lexington, Ky., Sept. 23, 1867.

BOOK MAKING IN LOUISVILLE.

JOHN P. MORTON & CO.

About thirty years ago the senior partner of the well-known firm of John P. Morton & Co. was engaged in business in this city with W. W. Sperry.
 They printed a weekly paper called the "Focus." This was one of the first papers ever printed in Louisville. It was finally sold out or discontinued, and Mr.
 Worsley was succeeded by a gentleman named Smith, who did not retain his interest for any great length of time. He was followed by Mr. H. A. Griswold. Under this arrangement the style of the firm was changed to that of Morton & Griswold. By the superior financing ability of Mr. Griswold and the excellent business qualities of Mr. Morton, the house has attained a distinction and celebrity not surpassed by any similar one in this country, either for the importance of their publications or general reliability
